

Dr. Vaneet Inder Kaur, Ph.D.
Fellow, the Indian Ecological Society
Email: vaneetinderkaur@gadvasu.in

Dr Vaneet Inder Kaur is Principal Scientist (Fisheries) at Department of Aquaculture, College of Fisheries, Guru Angad Dev Veterinary and Animal Sciences University (GADVASU), Ludhiana (Punjab), India. She joined as Assistant Professor (Fisheries) in KVK Usman, Amritsar (Punjab) of Punjab Agricultural University, Ludhiana on September 1, 2005 before joining GADVASU, Ludhiana in 2007. Her research expertise includes Fish Nutrition and Species Diversification. She has developed Package and Practice of 'Ornamental Fish Culture & Breeding', 'Culture & Breeding of High Value Species' and 'Low Cost Duckweed Based Carp Grow out Diets'. Presently, she is involved in standardizing Intensive Aquaculture Technologies under climatic conditions of Punjab. She is also part of one of the University level World Bank Funded prestigious IDP-NAHEP Project of ICAR, as Co-I. She has published more than 50 Research Papers in National & International Journals, 7 Strategy Papers, 1 Edited Book, 4 Chapters in Books, & 56 Extension Articles.